

Graduate Course Syllabus

SCS 501: Foundations in Statistics

Center: Online

Course Prerequisites

None

Course Description

The focus of this course is to enable students to develop a foundation of basic statistical literacy. Students will be able to assess the role of statistics in quantitative research and mixed methodologies, as well as develop the competency to perform basic statistical calculations. An awareness of the relationship between computation and interpretation will be addressed. Students will focus on the analysis of real-world data and research situations to illustrate the process of interpreting the meaning underlying the data and learn how to use statistics to address important questions.

Course Outcomes

- Accurately apply appropriate statistical methods or measures, including the use of hypothesis testing, to various applications in social science research
- Perform, with precision and accuracy, fundamental statistical computations on data or measures to accept or reject established hypotheses
- Draw empirically based conclusions from the results of statistical procedures and computations
- Interpret statistical analysis, measures, methods, and results utilized and discussed in reports, assessments, and research articles in the social sciences
- Select statistical procedures or methods appropriate for addressing given problems, scenarios, or research questions in the social sciences

Required Materials

Using your learning resources is critical to your success in this course. Please purchase directly through the SNHU Online Bookstore rather than any other vendor. Purchasing directly from the bookstore ensures that you will obtain the correct materials and that the IT Service Desk, your advisor, and the instructor can provide you with support if you have problems.

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

As indicated in our core values, SNHU is committed to “embrace diversity where we encourage and respect diverse identities, ideas, and perspectives by honoring difference, amplifying belonging, engaging civilly, and breaking down barriers to bring our mission to life.”

This may or will be reflected in SNHU’s curriculum as we embrace and practice diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) to provide the most transformative experience for our students, faculty, and staff. Because topics pertaining to DEI can be sensitive, please remember that embodying and practicing diversity, equity, and inclusion is one of our core values that you will encounter throughout the academic experience. In higher education, we are expected to think and engage critically. Use a growth mindset to embrace the diverse readings, course assignments, and experiences of your peers and faculty.

For more information about DEI at SNHU, please visit our website at the Office of Diversity and Inclusion.

Instructor Availability and Response Time

Your class interaction with the instructor and your classmates will take place on a regular, ongoing basis. Your instructor will be actively engaged within the course throughout the week. You will normally communicate with your instructor in the weekly discussions or the General Questions discussion topic so that your questions and the instructor’s answers benefit the entire class. You should feel free, however, to communicate with your instructor via SNHU email at any time, particularly when you want to discuss something of a personal or sensitive nature. Your instructor will generally provide a response within 24 hours. Instructors will post grades and feedback (as applicable) within seven days of an assignment’s due date, or within seven days of a late submission.

Grade Distribution

Assignment Category	Number of Graded Items	Point Value per Item	Total Points
Discussions	6	30	180
Homework	9	20	180
Quizzes	2	90	180
Midterm Exam	1	140	140
Final Exam	1	320	320
			Total Course Points: 1,000

This course may also contain practice activities. The purpose of these non-graded activities is to assist you in mastering the learning outcomes in the graded activity items listed above.

University Grading System: Graduate

Grade	Numerical Equivalent	Points
A	93–100	4.00

Grade	Numerical Equivalent	Points
A-	90–92	3.67
B+	87–89	3.33
B	83–86	3.00
B-	80–82	2.67
C+	77–79	2.33
C	73–76	2.00
F	0–72	0.00

Grading Guides

Specific activity directions, grading guides, posting requirements, and additional deadlines can be found in the Assignment Guidelines and Rubrics section of the course.

Weekly Assignment Schedule

All reading and assignment information can be found within each module of the course. Assignments and discussion posts during the first week of each term are due by 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time. Assignments and discussion posts for the remainder of the term are due by 11:59 p.m. of the student's local time zone.

In addition to the textbook readings that are listed, there may be additional required resources within each module.

Module	Topics and Assignments
1	Introduction to Statistical Studies and Data Sampling Methods Statistical Reasoning for Everyday Life , Chapter 1 1-1 Discussion: Data and Statistics in Social Science 1-2 MyStatLab: Module One Homework
2	Types of Data and Errors Statistical Reasoning for Everyday Life , Chapter 2 2-1 Discussion: Variables 2-2 MyStatLab: Module Two Homework
3	Visual and Graphical Data Description Statistical Reasoning for Everyday Life , Chapter 3 3-1 MyStatLab: Module Three Homework 3-2 MyStatLab: Module Three Quiz
4	Numerical Measures for Describing Data Statistical Reasoning: For Everyday Life , Chapter 4 (Sections 4–1, 4–2, and 4–3) 4-1 Discussion: Numerical Measures 4-2 MyStatLab: Module Four Homework

Module	Topics and Assignments
5	The Normal Distribution Statistical Reasoning for Everyday Life , Chapter 5 5-1 MyStatLab: Module Five Homework 5-2 MyStatLab: Midterm Exam
6	Probability Statistical Reasoning for Everyday Life , Chapter 6 6-1 Discussion: Relative Probability 6-2 MyStatLab: Module Six Homework
7	Correlation and Causality Statistical Reasoning for Everyday Life , Chapter 7 7-1 Discussion: Correlation and Causality 7-2 MyStatLab: Module Seven Homework
8	Using Samples to Estimate Populations Statistical Reasoning for Everyday Life , Chapter 8 8-1 MyStatLab: Module Eight Homework 8-2 MyStatLab: Module Eight Quiz
9	Introduction to Hypothesis Testing Statistical Reasoning for Everyday Life , Chapter 9 9-1 Discussion: Hypothesis Testing 9-2 MyStatLab: Module Nine Homework
10	Reflection and Review Statistical Reasoning for Everyday Life , Review Chapters 1–9 10-1 MyStatLab: Final Exam

Course Participation

Course participation is required within the first week of the term for all online courses. Participation in this context is defined as completing one graded assignment during the first week of the course. Otherwise, students will be administratively removed for nonparticipation. Students who do not participate during the first week may forfeit their rights to be reinstated into the course. Students who stop attending a course after the first week and who do not officially withdraw will receive a grade calculated based on all submitted and missed graded assignments for the course. Missed assignments will earn a grade of zero. See the course withdrawal policy and the full attendance policy for further information.

Late Assignments

Students who need extra time may submit assignments (excluding discussion board postings) up to one week after the assignment due date. Discussion board submissions will not be accepted for credit after the deadline except in extenuating circumstances.

- A penalty of 10 percent of the total value of the assignment will be applied to the grade achieved on the late assignment regardless of the day of the week on which the work is submitted.
- Students who submit assignments more than one week late will receive a grade of zero on the assignment unless they have made prior arrangements with the instructor.

Students must submit all assignments no later than 11:59 p.m. (in their own time zone) on the last day of the term. No assignments are accepted after the last day of the term unless an incomplete has been submitted. See the incomplete grades policy.

There may be times an instructor makes an exception to the late assignment policy. Instructors may accept late work, including discussion board posts, with or without prior arrangement.

- Exceptions to the late policy on these grounds are left to the instructor's discretion, including whether the late penalty is applied or waived. Students should not assume that they will be allowed to submit assignments after the due dates.
- If an instructor finds that they are unable to determine whether an exception to the late policy would be appropriate without documentation, the collection and review of student documentation should be handled through the Dispute Resolution team in order to protect the student's privacy. In these cases, students should file a Student Concern Dispute form to have the circumstances reviewed.

If a student is experiencing (or knows they will experience) a circumstance, including pregnancy, that is protected under the Americans with Disabilities Act or Title IX, they are encouraged to contact the Online Accessibility Center \(OAC\) as soon as possible to explore what academic accommodations might be offered. Instructors must honor all deadlines established through the OAC.
