QSO 645: Project Management for PMP® Certification

Center: Online

Course Prerequisites

None

Course Description

The course is designed to help learners prepare for the Project Management Professional (PMP) exam. In partnership with the Project Management Institute (PMI), SNHU instructors completed the Authorized Training Partner Train the Trainer PMP® Exam Prep program. Passing this course will result in satisfactory completion of the 35 hours of project management education required in order to take the PMP exam. However, it does not guarantee success on the PMP exam (PMP is a registered mark of the Project Management Institute, Inc.).

In this course, learners will gain insight into the process groups and knowledge areas that guide project management professionals. Learners will use process inputs and outputs, as well as tools and techniques, to effectively plan and manage projects. Exploration of the professional and social responsibilities of project management will also be addressed.

Course Outcomes

- Evaluate strategic management decisions based on application of project methodologies and practices
- Synthesize the ten knowledge areas and five process groups of project management to complete projects that conform to generally accepted practices and policies, including ethical standards
- Analyze project documents in order to identify project inputs and outputs
- Determine feasibility of projects by assessing organizational factors, past projects, stakeholder requirements, and the risks, assumptions, and constraints in the process
- Assess the progress of project work, utilizing quantitative and qualitative measurement tools to determine levels of both quality and performance
- Develop plans that meet diversified project needs for supporting collaboration with all stakeholders throughout the project life cycle

Required Materials

Using your learning resources is critical to your success in this course. Please purchase directly through the SNHU Online Bookstore rather than any other vendor. Purchasing directly from the bookstore ensures that you will obtain the correct materials and that the IT Service Desk, your advisor, and the instructor can provide you with support if you have problems.

You will need to purchase an access code for the PMI® materials through the SNHU Online Bookstore. After you have purchased your book, you will receive an access key for the required materials in your student email. To redeem the access key, please follow these instructions:

- Open your internet browser (recommended browsers are Firefox, Chrome, and Safari).
- Type in the URL <https://pmi.lochoice.com> and press the enter key. This will take you to the login page.
- Click the Login button to pop up the login window. You will use your PMI.ORG credentials to log in.
 - Note: If you do not have PMI.ORG credentials, please click Register Now, which will take you PMI.ORG to create an account.
- Fill in your PMI.ORG credentials.
- You are now on the PMI-Choice homepage.
- If this is your first time logging in, you will need to add your course.
 - Click on Add a Course tile.
 - Enter your Access Key in the pop up window and click Enroll.
- Note: Access keys are case sensitive, and each access key can only be redeemed once.
- Upon redeeming your key, you will be presented with the PMI-Choice homepage, which will list the course your access key provided access to. Click the course tile to gain access to the electronic components for your course.
- If you encounter technical issues with the Project Management Institute® (PMI®) website, please call +1 800 456 4677 or email customerservice@logicaloperations.com.

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

As indicated in our core values, SNHU is committed to “embrace diversity where we encourage and respect diverse identities, ideas, and perspectives by honoring difference, amplifying belonging, engaging civilly, and breaking down barriers to bring our mission to life.”

This may or will be reflected in SNHU’s curriculum as we embrace and practice diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) to provide the most transformative experience for our students, faculty, and staff. Because topics pertaining to DEI can be sensitive, please remember that embodying and practicing diversity, equity, and inclusion is one of our core values that you will encounter throughout the academic experience. In higher education, we are expected to think and engage critically. Use a growth mindset to embrace the diverse readings, course assignments, and experiences of your peers and faculty.

For more information about DEI at SNHU, please visit our website at the Office of Diversity and Inclusion.

Instructor Availability and Response Time

Your class interaction with the instructor and your classmates will take place on a regular, ongoing basis. Your instructor will be actively engaged within the course throughout the week. You will normally communicate with your instructor in the weekly discussions or the General Questions discussion topic so that your questions and the instructor's answers benefit the entire class. You should feel free, however, to communicate with your instructor via SNHU email at any time, particularly when you want to discuss something of a personal or sensitive nature. Your instructor will generally provide a response within 24 hours. Instructors will post grades and feedback (as applicable) within seven days of an assignment's due date, or within seven days of a late submission.

Course Participation

Course participation is required within the first week of the term for all online courses. Participation in this context is defined as completing one graded assignment during the first week of the course. Otherwise, students will be administratively removed for nonparticipation. Students who do not participate during the first week may forfeit their rights to be reinstated into the course. Students who stop attending a course after the first week and who do not officially withdraw will receive a grade calculated based on all submitted and missed graded assignments for the course. Missed assignments will earn a grade of zero. See the course withdrawal policy and the full attendance policy for further information.

Late Assignments

Students who need extra time may submit assignments (excluding discussion board postings) up to one week after the assignment due date. Discussion board submissions will not be accepted for credit after the deadline except in extenuating circumstances.

- A penalty of 10 percent of the total value of the assignment will be applied to the grade achieved on the late assignment regardless of the day of the week on which the work is submitted.
- Students who submit assignments more than one week late will receive a grade of zero on the assignment unless they have made prior arrangements with the instructor.

Students must submit all assignments no later than 11:59 p.m. (in their own time zone) on the last day of the term. No assignments are accepted after the last day of the term unless an incomplete has been submitted. See the incomplete grades policy.

There may be times an instructor makes an exception to the late assignment policy. Instructors may accept late work, including discussion board posts, with or without prior arrangement.

- Exceptions to the late policy on these grounds are left to the instructor's discretion, including whether the late penalty is applied or waived. Students should not assume that they will be allowed to submit assignments after the due dates.
- If an instructor finds that they are unable to determine whether an exception to the late policy would be appropriate without documentation, the collection and review of student documentation should be handled through the Dispute Resolution team in order to protect the student's privacy. In these cases, students should file a Student Concern Dispute form to have the circumstances reviewed.

If a student is experiencing (or knows they will experience) a circumstance, including pregnancy, that is protected under the Americans with Disabilities Act or Title IX, they are encouraged to contact the Online Accessibility Center \(OAC\) as soon as possible to explore what academic accommodations might be offered. Instructors must honor all deadlines established through the OAC.
