

Undergraduate Course Syllabus

MKT 490: Marketing Internship

Center: Online

Course Prerequisites

Senior internship only; must have 15 credits

Course Description

The primary goal of the internship experience is to expose you to actual practices in the world of work outside of the classroom, to relate this experience to academic course work, and to synthesize the two in a practical application of knowledge in an experiential setting. Secondly, internships offer the opportunity to develop crucial job searching skills, explore career interests, enhance your résumé, make contacts in your chosen field, and build references for future employment. Each intern will work in a career-related position during the academic term for which the student is enrolled for the internship—fall, spring, or summer—completing a minimum of 150 hours on the job per 3 credits. Students can complete 3 to 12 hours of MKT 490 credit.

Course Outcomes

- Apply theoretical knowledge and program competencies in solving practical, real-world problems within a professional fashion merchandising or retail setting
- Communicate ideas, suggestions, or relevant information in a professional manner appropriate for the fashion merchandising or retail industry
- Identify opportunities for self-improvement within a professional fashion merchandising or retail setting
- Articulate how knowledge and experience gained via the internship can be effectively implemented in achieving professional goals

Required Materials

Using your learning resources is critical to your success in this course. Please purchase directly through the SNHU Online Bookstore rather than any other vendor. Purchasing directly from the bookstore ensures that you will obtain the correct materials and that the Help Desk, your advisor, and the instructor can provide you with support if you have problems.

Instructor Availability and Response Time

Your class interaction with the instructor and your classmates will take place on a regular, ongoing basis. Your instructor will be actively engaged within the course throughout the week. You will normally communicate with your instructor in the weekly discussions or the General Questions discussion topic so that your questions and the instructor's answers benefit the entire class. You should feel free, however, to communicate with your instructor via SNHU email at any time, particularly when you want to discuss something of a personal or sensitive nature. Your instructor will generally provide a response within 24 hours.

The university prohibits unlawful discrimination on the basis of disability and takes action to prevent such discrimination by providing reasonable accommodations to eligible individuals with disabilities. A disability is a condition or impairment that impacts a “major life activity” or “major bodily function.”

- Major life activities include, but are not limited to, caring for oneself, performing manual tasks, seeing, hearing, eating, sleeping, walking, standing, lifting, bending, speaking, breathing, learning, reading, concentrating, thinking, communicating, and working.

Disabilities include physical, medical (including pregnancy), mental health, and learning needs.

At the beginning of each term, or as soon as you become aware of a disability or accessibility concern, we encourage you to contact the Online Accessibility Center (OAC) to discuss accommodations for which you may be qualified. Reasonable accommodations are established through an interactive process between the student and the OAC.

Note that accommodations are not retroactive and that disability accommodations are not provided until acceptable documentation of a disability and its impact is received and an accommodation letter has been processed. If you are unsure whether your condition qualifies as a disability or accessibility concern, please contact the OAC for determination.
