

Graduate Course Syllabus

CED 636: Foundations of Community Action

Center: Online

Course Prerequisites

None

Course Description

Foundations of Community Action explores the establishment and growth of programs to assist the poor in America from the turn of the twentieth century to the present. Using the War on Poverty as a foundation, students will examine initiatives for fighting poverty, shifting policies and programs, leadership at national and local levels, and the role of community action. Throughout the course, students will assess established policies and programs and consider alternatives for fighting poverty.

Course Outcomes

- Relate personalities and agendas of key individuals to the decisions and policies implemented
- Chart the ebb and flow of government involvement in assisting the poor from the late nineteenth century to the present
- Compare and contrast past methods of assisting the poor with today's methods and projected methods, and explore the role that political will plays in addressing poverty
- Explain the role of leadership at the community, federal, and state levels and analyze the effect of political leadership in fighting poverty
- Consider who is for or against the government taking on the role of assisting the poor

Required Materials

Using your learning resources is critical to your success in this course. Please purchase directly through SNHU's online bookstore, MBS Direct, rather than any other vendor. Purchasing directly from the bookstore ensures that you will obtain the correct materials and that the Help Desk, your advisor, and the instructor can provide you with support if you have problems.

Optional Materials

Lyndon B. Johnson and American Liberalism
Bruce J. Schulman
Bedford St. Martin's Press
2nd Edition
2006

Instructor Availability and Response Time

Your class interaction with your instructor and your classmates will take place in Blackboard on a regular, ongoing basis. Your instructor will be active in Blackboard at least five days a week, and you will normally communicate with your instructor in the open Blackboard discussion forum so that your questions and the instructor's answers benefit the entire class. You should send emails directly to your instructor only when you need to discuss something of a personal or sensitive nature, and in those cases your instructor will generally provide a response within 24 hours.

Grade Distribution

Assignment Category	Number of Graded Items	Point Value per Item	Total Points
Discussion	16	20	320
Game Changers	4	70	280
Final Project	1	360	360
		Total Course Points:	960

This course may also contain practice activities. The purpose of these non-graded activities is to assist you in mastering the learning outcomes in the graded activity items listed above.

University Grading System: Graduate

Total Points: 960
Grade	Numerical Equivalent	Points	Points Equivalent
			Lower	Upper
A	93-100	4.00	892.8	960
A-	90-92	3.67	864	891.8
B+	87-89	3.33	835.2	863
B	83-86	3.00	796.8	834.2
B-	80-82	2.67	768	795.8
C+	77-79	2.33	739.2	767
C	73-76	2.00	700.8	738.2
F	0-72	0.00	0	699.8
I	Incomplete
IF	Incomplete/Failure
W	Withdrawn

*Incomplete and Incomplete/Failure: Any student requesting an “I” grade must complete a Student Petition and Contract for a Grade of Incomplete and submit it to the proper offices prior to the final day of the term/semester. The petition will specify a deadline by which the coursework must be completed. The incomplete automatically becomes an “IF” if work has not been completed and a grade has not been submitted by the specific deadline.

Grading Guides

Specific activity directions, grading guides, posting requirements, and additional deadlines can be found in the Course Information area in the Assignment Guidelines and Rubrics folder.

Attendance Policy

Failure to participate during the first week of the course (12:00 a.m. Monday through 11:59 p.m. Sunday) will result in automatic withdrawal. Participation is defined as posting within a discussion board, wiki, or blog, and/or submitting an assignment. Students who do not participate during the first week forfeit their rights to be reinstated into the course.

Extended absences, defined as failure to post into the Blackboard classroom for more than five days, must be coordinated with the instructor. Students who fail to coordinate any such absence with the instructor, or who fail to withdraw from the course in accordance with the COCE official drop and withdrawal policy, will be graded appropriately.

All assignments must be submitted through the appropriate Blackboard tool by 11:59 PM Eastern Standard Time on the specified due date. Refer to the Assignment Guidelines and Rubrics folder for specific details on completing the assignments in this course.

Continuing Education Center Instructor Availability: All undergraduate Continuing Education instructors at all center locations (Manchester, Nashua, Salem, Portsmouth, and Brunswick, Maine) will be available to students for a minimum of four additional hours of face-to-face meeting time per term. This time is in addition to the required 20 hours of face-to-face time in hybrid classes and the required 40 hours of face-to-face time in lecture classes. How the additional meeting time is utilized is at the discretion of the instructor and may vary by course.
Academic Honesty Policy: Southern New Hampshire University requires all students to adhere to high standards of integrity in their academic work. Activities such as plagiarism and cheating are not condoned by the university. Students involved in such activities are subject to serious disciplinary action. Plagiarism is defined as the use, whether by paraphrase or direct quotation, of the published or unpublished work of another without full and clear acknowledgment. Cheating includes the giving or receiving of unauthorized assistance on quizzes, examinations, or written assignments from any source not approved by the instructor. Understand that in taking this course, your assignments may be submitted to Turnitin.com or other plagiarism-detection services and reviewed for textual similarity suggestive of plagiarism. All submitted papers are subsequently included as source material in the Turnitin.com database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism in other submitted work. Please review the Turnitin.com Usage Policy should you have any questions. For more about academic dishonesty, please refer to the undergraduate or graduate catalogs.

ADA/504 Compliance Statement: Southern New Hampshire University is committed to and concerned with meeting the needs of students challenged by physical, sensory, psychiatric and/or learning disabilities with regard to the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), as amended, and Section 504 of the 1973 Rehabilitation Act. At the beginning of each term, or as soon as you become aware of a disability, we encourage you to contact the Office of Disability Services to discuss accommodations for which you may be qualified.
