IT 476: Experiential Learning

Center: Online

Course Prerequisites

CE: Completion of 60 credits

Course Description

Participate in an experiential learning elective course that focuses on professional development, certification preparation or professional practice opportunities. Explore and learn new tools and technologies that help you hone your real-world technical knowledge, skills and abilities. This course requires a minimum of 60 hours in the learning experience and may be taken for credit a maximum of two times.

Course Outcomes

- Make connections between theoretical concepts and real-world practices relevant to a given industry or company
- Develop collaboration and networking skills in order for maintaining professional currency and furthering personal and professional growth opportunities
- Articulate how knowledge and experience gained through experiential learning opportunities translates into other academic, personal and professional contexts or settings
- Effectively communicate in a professional manner using industry-appropriate language

Required Materials

This course requires the use of Skillsoft for access to the e-book, videos, and other assets that you can use throughout the course. You will access Skillport through the following link: <https://snhu.skillport.com>.

You will be enrolled in Skillsoft to utilize the following book, in addition to assigned videos:

Instructor Availability and Response Time

Your class interaction with the instructor and your classmates will take place on a regular, ongoing basis. Your instructor will be actively engaged within the course throughout the week. You will normally communicate with your instructor in the weekly discussions or the General Questions discussion topic so that your questions and the instructor's answers benefit the entire class. You should feel free, however, to communicate with your instructor via SNHU email at any time, particularly when you want to discuss something of a personal or sensitive nature. Your instructor will generally provide a response within 24 hours.
